Sensible Talk for the Negroes.

Provisional Governor Marvin of Florida, lately had a talk with the negroes of Mariana, in that State, which, as embodying the views of a man of Northern birth who has had opportunities of informing himself as to the condition and character of the ex-slaves, and as containing advice that suits them as well in Virginia as in Florida, we consider worth a place in our columns. Governor Marvin commenced by telling them that with the war that has just ended they had nothing to do—that it was a white man's war. That the negro neither commenced it or ended it, and that although a few of their number were enlisted in the army, they took no decisive part in accomplishing the final result. He tells them:

You remained at home, worked, behaved yourselves, and the blood of no man is on your hands. When it commenced, it was neither intended nor prosecuted with the end in view to liberate you from slavery. Neither the Northern white man nor the Southern white man expected nor intended such a result; neither, therefore, is entitled to your thanks or gratitude. To a higher power should you feel grateful for your freedom to-day—to the Providence and tender mercies of Almighty God. You are free; as free as the white man.

* * * * * *

If you ask me the question, whether the white man of the North or the white man of the South is your friend, I will answer you by saying that I hope and believe both of them are but if it comes to a question of certainty as to which of the two is your better friend, I shall answer plainly and tell you, the white man of the South. I was born in the North, raised and educated there, but I have spent the last thirty years of my life in the South, and I consider myself capable of judging between the two people, particularly in reference to yourselves. I know the Northern man, or Yankee, as as you call him, from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, and I tell you to-day as your friend, that the Southern white man, with whom you were raised, and who is acquainted with your habits and customs, is the best friend you have.

He tells them that the question whether this freedom will prove a blessing to them by their advancement and civiliza tion, or a course involving vagabonism and intimate destruction, depends upon themselves alone. He urges them to remain on the plantations—to make bargains with their former masters, if possible—to avoid cities, or hope of bettering their condition by vagabonism—to be faithful to their contracts, and to rely upon the laws to vindicate their rights. He tells them that they, and not the whites, will suffer from their neglect to be industrious—that the whites can get along without them, but that they cannot get along without the whites.

Now, will you avail yourselves of these advantages or not? As yet you know nothing about freedom. In reference to it you may be compared to a child just born—almost everything you will have to learn. You will have much to think about, great trials to encounter, difficulties to contend with never experienced before, and harder work probably to do than you ever have done before. Heretofore, comparatively, you have had no care. Your masters, influenced by interest, aside from human feelings, which none question many of them having fed you, clothed you, and when sick have nursed you, and when necessary have employed medical attendance; the raising of your children has received almost their exclusive care; they furnished the old women to watch over them during the absence of their mothers, who came two or three times to nurse them during the day. Now, as freedmen and women, you are by your work to feed yourselves, clothe yourselves, employ medical attendance, raise and educate your children. Will properly raise your children? I am afraid some of you will not. I regret to say, that I have heard, indeed know of instances where mothers have neglected their children to perish and die.

He points out to them how, by patient industry, they may accumulate money, buy land, obtain a homestead, educate their children, and become good examples for the emulation of their race. That in this pursuit of a real independence the laws will now protect them, and urges the women to help their husbands by laboring as they have done, more earnestly than ever before, now that this labor is all for their own benefit, and not to think that because they are free they should do nothing, and thus become a burden to their husbands.

They must be civil to their former masters, and not think because they are free that they can be impudent to the whites among whom they live. He says: "Some of the most polite men I have ever "seen were colored men who had been raised in good families. They were naturally polite, and knew well how to be so, and it is so with you. You can be as polite as any one, and you ought not to be otherwise. It is a duty which is due to ourselves; it is gentle manlike and ladylike. You have a greater inducement now than you ever had before, and if you wish to be esteemed, you must conduct yourselves accordingly."

He tells them that because they are free they must not think that they are equal to the white people, because they are not. Many things they will have to learn; but the whites will always be ready to help them in all things to improve their condition.

We copy the conclusion of Governor Marvin's speech in extenso:

There has been a story circulated in Middle Florida that on the first of January next, the land, mules, &c., will be taken from your former owners and divided among you. Such a story, I suppose you have all heard. Have you? Speak out. If you have, tell me so. ["Ise hearn it, Ise hearn it," said all.] Well, who told you so? [An answer: "The soldier."] What soldiers? These soldiers? These soldiers in town? ["No, Sir, the Confederate soldiers."] Well, I spoke to the colored people in Quincy the other day, and they did not understand me. "I have been sent here by the President to talk to you, and I tell you the truth; and if he had thought I would not tell you the truth he would not have sent me. I talked to the white people yesterday, and I talk to you to-day, and I want you to understand me and believe what I say. The President will not give you one foot of land, nor a mule, nor hog, nor cow, not even a knife and fork or spoon. [A voice, "Dar, old man, hear dat? dat's a bad egg! dat chicken won't hatch no how!"] He has given you your freedom, and that is everything he intends to give you, and that is enough, and some of you will understand me when I tell you why.

Before the war each of you was worth in dollars and cents to your owners, eight hundred or a thousand, or fifteen hundred dollars—worth more than fifty acres of land and a mule thrown in. Well, the President has, in giving you your freedom, taken so many dollars and cents from your old masters, and he thinks, as I do, they have lost enough, and you by it had enough given to you. If he were to give you more it would prove a curse to you. God has directed the President how much to give you and he will give no more. God knows what is best for you. If you had so much land and so many mules given to you, it would be the ruin of you. You would become proud and say, "ha! ha! I have land now and a mule, and I am a gentleman, and I ain't going to work." Now I ask you if it not so? Wouldn't it make you proud and foolish, and sir, it would."] Then it is best for you not to have it, and you must be contented in having your freedom, and what else you have you will have to get by work. And when you shall have made it by hard work, you will value it by days of hard toil it cost you to get it, and then you will rightly value it and take care of it.

You are now at liberty to go to wrok for whom you please, or have none other to work for.—You are now to no man; you have ceased to be property; you will never be sold again; and if you will struggle hard do right, live as good men and women, and you will prosper; if not, you will suffer. You all look to be well fed, well clothed, healthy, strong, full of muscle and sinew, knowing the kind treatment you have received and you are well prepared to go to work for yourselves, and to develope the resources of the country.

I believe I have covered the whole ground, and said all that is necessary; if, however, I have left anything out, let me know what it is. Come up and out! [You have a right to ask, so speak a few unimportant questions were asked, which were satisfactorily answered.]—Now, before I conclude, I wish to ask you are you satisfied? Are you? ["We are," by all.] Will you promise me to do the best you can, be kindly disposed to all, to be good men and women?" ["We will."] God help you to do it! After the Governor had concluded his speech the crowd gathered more closely around him, and many pressed him with questions. One tall fellow, bald headed, and with a loud voice, approached and the following questions and answers were listened to with great interest, and no little amusement by all:

Pomp—"Gubner, I wants to ax you a question sir."

Gov.—"Well, ask on."

Pomp—"I has two wives. De fust one didn't do well by me no how—want no count nudder—didn't help me a bit—didn't do nuffin for me, so I left her and fotched up wid another one. Now, sir, which one I got to stick to?"

Gov.—"Which one do you love best?"

Pomp—"I loves de one Ise wid now, Sir, de best.'

Gov.—"Then live with her; have her for your wife but you must live with her and her alone, and not, after awhile, get tired of her and then go off and get another—that won't do.'

Pomp (with delight)—'Ah! ha! I said dat Yankee Gubner was wrong all de time. He don't, he don't; Gubner, gib your seission; he says I must stick wid de one I got de most children by.'

Gov.—"Well, you must support your children. I do not tell you that you are at liberty to desert your children under any circumstances; that you never do. Which wife have you the more children by?"

Pomp (sick)—'Lor, Gubner, ise got de most children by bofe, and now dey got me wus-dan I got dem."

SALISBURY, N. C., NOVEMBER 21, 1865

J. J. STEWART. EDITOR

AGENTS WANTED.

We wish to establish agents in all the counties of this State as well as in all the principal towns and cities both North and South, for the purpose of procuring subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Banner—also, to obtain advertisements.

INCONSISTENCIES.

In our article of yesterday, we endeavored in our humble way to vindicate the people of North Carolina, or that portion of them who thought fit to cast their votes for Mr. Worth, from the slanderous assaults of two of our most leading and influential papers. In doing this we consider that we have performed one of the stern duties of a public journalist.

We regretted very much that our contemporaries the Standard and Progress should have become so jaundiced as to have preferred such grave charges. We hope that upon more mature reflection, they may feel warranted in withdrawing them.

The charges were made in a loose manner and couched in broad and general terms.

We call for the specifications.—Wherein have some thirty thousand voters exhibited their disloyalty? The most specific allegation is, that the 'disloyalists' do not wish to return to the Union under the lead of Union men.

Can such an inference be fairly drawn from the vote given to Mr. Worth? His Union record is as unimpeachable as perhaps any public man in the State. He voted against even the call for a Covention—he refused to become a member of the convention after it was called—he was stigmatised for these and many other imputed acts and opinions as disloyal to the South.

If any man in North Carolina can fairly lay claim to consistent Unionism, that man is Jonathan Worth. Mr. Turner, who has been recently elected to Congress, voted with Mr. Worth and Mr. Sharpe against the call for the Covention. These three men were all in the Legislature who stood up and battled manfully and fearlessly for the integrity of the Union, when that whirlwind of passion and excitement swept over the State in the winter of 1861.

Each one of these gentlemen has in the late election received at the ballot box the endorsement of the people.—Does this look like refusing to reconstruct under Union leaders?

Men do not commit evil deeds without some impelling motive. What motive, we urge, has any one to be disloyal or hatch treasonable plots? Some wanted peace on any terms, others wanted it when based on our independence.

The result of the war being adverse to our hopes of independence, now and forever, all agree in welcoming peace as better than the continuance of a fruitless struggle. All agree in wishing that peace may be lasting and in adapting ourselves to the condition of things which are now upon us. All want peace and all want speedy re-construction. Many, very many, however, expressed their preference of remaining under military rule indefinitely, rather than elect Gov. Holden. This is unreasoning prejudice, and irreconcilable hate, but it is not disloyalty.

A Washington official wrote a letter to a gentleman of this place declaring that Worth was more acceptable to the President than Gov. Holden.

A gentleman of high character, stated on our streets, that in an interview he had with the President, that high functionary declared, that had he known how objectionable Gov. Holden was to the people of the State, he would have appointed some one else Provisional Governor.

These things had a potent influence wherever circulated. There were divers other causes at work which operated against the Governor, but we have yet to hear of any one refusing to vote for him because of eitheir expressed opposition to the government, or on grounds which could be treated as having such a sentiment for their foundation. Is it noble, or magnanimous, or just, to advocate continued military rule over us, because Governor Holden has been defeated?

It is not only wrong, but in doing so the Standard and Progress lay themselves liable to the charge of gross inconsistency.

When (so-called) President Davis urged the Richmond Congress to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, who were so loud in their denunciations of the measure—and treating it as caused to a great extent by the supposed disloyalty of North Carolina—who were so eloquent in the defense of her loyalty as the Standard and Progress? Even since the surrender, who have so strenuously claimed for North Carolina pre-eminent loyalty as these journals? Stick to your text.—The Progress seems to be nervous from fear "union men," and freedmen, will be lynched as soon as the U. S. Troops are removed. If North Carolina is as loyal as these papers whilom contended, we throw that there would be nobody at the hanging, unless, it might be Capt. Pennington, late P. A. C. S. Away with such clap-trap and balder-dash. The Press has a higher and nobler mission to fulfil than in prefering indictments against a crushed and ruined people, who are striving according to the best lights of their conscience, to prove themselves entitled once more to a position in our glorious galaxy of States.

A NEW PAPER.

We publish to-day the Prospectus of "THE SALISBURY DAILY GAZETTE," a new paper to be published here. JOHNS. HAMPTON, & Co., Publishers; DR. W. L. COLE, editor. Dr. COLE has been for some time associate editor of the Banner. He is a gentleman of talent and ability, and we doubt not, will issue a very readable paper.

MR. HAMPTON is a good printer, and we feel assured will do his part well.

We commend the enterprise to the public.

GENERAL BRECKINRIDGE.

New York, Nov. 11.—A captain who accompanied Breckinridge from Europe to Canada has arrived at San Antonia, and says that Breckinridge has announced his determination to remove to Texas, should the President pardon him.

FROM MEXICO—REPORTED LIBERAL SUCCESS.

New Orleans, Nov. 16.—The Brownsville (Mexican) Republican, of the 7th, announces the capture of Monterey by the Liberals. It also says that no reinforcements had arrived at Brownsville. The Liberals claim that they can take Matamoras when they please.

The Galveston Bulletin says that Capt. Sinclair, of the Liberal service, who was formerly Lieutenant of the privateer Alabama, has captured an Imperial trasport on the North Rio Grande, and brought it to Brownsville, and turned it over to the Federal authorities.

Merchants who left Matamoras on the 7th, say that there were no fears of the place being captured.

Toronto, Nov. 15.—Orders have been received from Washington by Col. Dennison to send a Company of sixty four men for duty on the frontier. It is understood that nine full Companies will soon be sent.

GENERAL NEWS.

N. C. CONGRESSMEN ELECTED.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 16.—Five of the seven Congressional Districts elect the following gentlemen to Congress, viz: 2d District, C. C. Clark; 3d, T. C. Fuller; 4th, Josiah Turner; 5th, Lewis Hanes; 6th, S. H. Walkup. Messrs. Fuller and Turner were in the Confederate Congress, and Messrs. Walkup and Clark were officers in the Confedrate army.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 16.—Since the dispatch of the forenoon the official vote of the 5th Congressional District shows that the Hon. Bedford Brown is elected over Hanes, by 96 votes. Mr. Brown is one of the purest and best of men.—He was in the U. S. Senate thirty years ago.

New York, Nov. 16.—Jamaica advises to the 6th state that the rebellion has been crushed, and several of the insurgents have been condemned to death, including Gordon, the leader. Two Spanish war steamers had arrived and been placed at the disposal of the authorities.—Amnesty had been offered the rebels who would return to their allegience, provided they have not been engaged in murder or arson.

New York, Nov. 16.—A letter dated N. Orleans, Nov. 5th, says there is unusual activity in military circles in that city since the reception of the recent dispatches from the Rio Grande. Three regiments of regular cavalry have been ordered to report for duty at San Antonia, and the dismounted colored cavalry in N. Orleans are destined for the same place.

New York, Nov. 16.—Vice President Beekman, in receiving General Grant at the Union League rooms last night, alluded to the foul wrong of the French occupation of Mexico.—Gen. Grant in response, said that he endorsed the sentiment touching the future condition of that country.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Queen of Spain publishes a decree forbidding the extension of negro slavery to the Spanish colonies.

New York, Nov. 26.—A firemen's riot occurred at Jersey City this afternoon. Several persons were injured. It was quelled by the Sheriff.

New York, Nov. 16.—The issue of Gold Certificates yesterday and to day amounted to $975,000.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Gen. A. E. Jackson has been pardoned.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Nov. 16.—Cotton firm; sales of 300 bales at 60 a 59 cents. Flour unchanged. Wheat unchanged. Corn advancing. Pork dull. Lard and whisky unchanged. Sugar and Coffee quiet. Turpentine dull at $1.10 a 1.15. Rosin dull at $7.25 a 7.50. Gold 147½.

New York, Nov. 15.—Cotton 50 a 51; Naval stores quiet; Gold 17½

New York, Nov. 15.—The Persia has been detained at quarantine, but there is no sickness on board. The passenger's Paris baggage is to be famigated. The Java, for Liverpool, sailed to day; she took out $560,000 in specie.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 15.—The New York train ran off the track near here this morning, two persons killed and several severely wounded.

THE FENIANS.

New York, Nov. 11.—The executive officers of the Fenian Brotherhood have engaged a spacious mansion in the upper part of the city as their headquarters. The president and the different bureaus will move into it next week.

The Express says the present organizations is not intended for the government of the future Irish Republic, but only to aid Irish patriots in the struggle for independence by arms and money.

GOV. BROWNLOW IN A FIGHT.

Nashville, Nov. 10.—Gov. Brownlow had an encounter yesterday evening with a couple of rebel soldiers at Franklin. One of them had begged alms of Mrs. Brownlow on the ground of his having fought for the Confederacy. Upon her telling him she could not give him anything for such a reason as that, he grew angry and cursed her. When the Governor learned of the affair he went in search of the offender, who he found in company with another rebel soldier who made common cause with him.—The Governor whipped them both very genteelly.

FROM FORTRESS MONRE.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 11.—The steamer Pelican, from Washington to New York, put in here, awaiting favorable weather.

Workmen from Washington commenced removing the iron on the track of the Government rail road between here and Hampton, but the work was suspended by order of General Miles.

THE NEW CONGRESS.

The XXXVIIIth Congress will convene at Washington on Monday, December 4th. In the Senate, the Hon. Lafayette S. Foster, of Connecticut, will take the chair as President pro tem, with Col. John W. Forney, of Pennsylvania, as Secretary. The majority of the Unionists is here so heavy that it can in no case be overcome except by divisions; the only Opposition Senators entitled to take seats without inquiry being Messrs. Wright and Stockton of New Jersey, Buckalew of Pennsylvania, Riddle and Saulsbury of Delaware, Davis and Powell of Kentucky, R. Johnson of Maryland, Hendricks of Indiana, McDougall of California, and Nesmith of Oregon—11 in all, to 38 Unionists. If every State lately in rebellion were to have Senators present at the hour of opening the Session (as several of them will not,) and if each were to claim and hold his seat, there would still be a Unionist majority. So no more need be said of the Senate.

As to the House, the case is but little different. The Representatives who will take seats, of course, are politically divided, as follows:

States.	Union.	Dem.
Maine,	5	—
New Hampshire,	3	—
Massachusetts,	10	—
Rhode Island,	2	—
Connecticut,	4	—
Vermont,	3	—
New York,	20	11
New Jersey,	2	3
Pennsylvania,	15	9
Delaware,	—	1
Maryland,	3	2
West Virginia,	3	—
Kansas,	1	—
Kentucky,	4	5
Ohio,	17	2
Indiana,	8	3
Illinois,	11	3
Michigan,	6	—
Wisconsin,	5	1
Minnesota,	2	—
Iowa,	6	—
Missouri,	8	1
Nevada,	1	—
California,	3	—
Oregon,	1	—
Total,	143	41

The States whose "reconstruction" has not yet been recognized and ratified by Congress are entitled, when fully recognized and recognized, to send representatives as follows:

Virginia,	8	Tennessee,	8
North Carolina,	7	Arkansas,	3
South Carolina,	4	Louisiana,	8
Georgia,	7	Texas,	4
Alabama,	6	Florida,	1
Mississippi,	5	Total,	—58

Were all these admitted at the outset, without demur or scrutiny, they would not all affiliate with the Opposition; and even if they did, their combined strength would fall far short of a majority. Their candidate for Speaker would fall fully 40 votes behind, notwithstanding that sickness will prevent the attendance of several Unionists.

But tho members from the States lately in revolt cannot take their seats at the outset. So as to vote for Speaker and Clerk. Not even such devoted and unwavering Unionists as Horace Maynard, representing a district that, though temporarily overborne by Rebel bayonets, never faltered in nor concealed its devotion to the Union, will be admitted without preliminary investigation and scrutiny. Our copperheads never peeped when the last Congress refused to count the electoral votes of Tennessee, Arkansas and Louisiana for Lincoln, because those States were "not in their proper relation to the Union" when they voted; and the same reason will now prescribe an inquiry and report by a committee before their Representatives can be admitted to seats.

The recognition of a State which has been for years in open and deadly hostility to the Union as once more entitled to share in the government of that Union by sending members to Congress, is a very grave act. No mere clerk dare presume so far. But each House, being first duly constituted, will proceed to take up the claims of all persons presenting credentials from States lately in rebellion, and act thereon as the Constitution and laws shall be found to prescribe. There is no hurry.

LOCAL.

TOMB STONES.

All who have lost relatives in the late war have a sacred duty to perform.

That duty is to mark the last resting place of the loved ones by monuments or tombstones, with appropriate inscriptions recording their virtues and untimely death.

Our townsman Mr. Moses Kellogg, who worked at the business here before the war with such entire satifaction to the public, has, it will be seen just received from the splendid quaries of Vermont, an elegant lot of marble, and is prepared to fill ordors. He is well known as a responsible man and executes jobs with neatness and dispatch. Send in your orders.

MANSION HOUSE.

This venerable house has lately changed landlords. It is now in charge of our energetic and enterprising townsmen, Messrs. Samuel Reeves, jr., and Cham Caughenour, Mr. Rowzee having retired. These gentlemen are determined that the Mansion House, as a hotel, shall be equal to, if it does not surpass the best in the South for comfort and good eating.

We unhesitatingly recommend it to the traveling public. Here they will find comfortable rooms, clean beds, obliging servants, and an abundance to eat. Give the Mansion House a trial.

CAPT. J. A. RAMSAY.

We are glad to learn that this gentleman has received the appointment as agent of the National Express Company at this place. Capt. Ramsay is a reliable, efficient, and business-like gentleman and will make an excellent officer. He will be assisted by Mr. Franklin Craige and Mr. Baldy Boyden, both steady and trustworthy young men.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mail must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appionting them.

The advertisement for the regular mail service in this State will appea soon.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esqu's. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Washington Aug. 3, 1865.

SIR:—With a view to furnishing mail facilities. at the earliest practicable moment, to persons residing at and near County seats in the State of North Carolina, I have the honor to inform you that the Department on the receipt of reasonable bids for the transportation, will be prepared to issue orders authorizing temporary mail service on routes running from such County seats to the nearest points on rrilroads on which mails are conveyed.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. DENNISON,
Postmaster General.

Hon. W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, Raleigh.

N. B.—By "temporary mail service" is intended service to December 31st, next previous to which time all the routes in the State will be advertised for re-letting from Jan. 1st, 1866.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C R. R, 2½ miles South of Salisbury. This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently clared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for sereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The ballance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell separately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col. B. Craige my accounted agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 bbls of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necesary to conduct the farm.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in thi senterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in thegrave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtuee. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe, in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c. taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

THE FARMER,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL,

DEVOTED TO AGRICULTURE, HORTICULTURE, THE AUXILIARY MECHANIC ARTS, AND TO HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

To be Published at Richmond, Va.

The undersigned propose to publish in this city—commencing in January, 1866—a monthly Journal to be styled "THE FARMER," whose pages shall be devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture, the auxiliary Mechanic Arts and to Household Economy. A Journal which shall faithfully and successfully represent these cardinal interests by the dissemination of practical information & thorough, sound instruction, will supply a desideratum which is widely and deeply felt in the present exigency of our affairs, and ought, therefore, (we should think) readily to commend itself to popular acceptation, and command, in return, a remunerating ptronage. "Faithfully" and "successfully" to support these interests, requires a ournal of the highest order of its kind. Its to nothing short of this high standar of public usefulness that "The Farmer" aspires, and to reach and maintain , ill be an object of unremitting effort nonsparing liberality of expenditure. sks recognition as a worthy organ of the cardinal branches of national industry, which it assumes the special advocacy, and hopes to meet the requirements of the position satisfactorily to those whose interests are more immediately involved.

We are fallen upon times of peculiar and unexampled difficulty. The sudden and violent overthrow of African slavery without premonition of its near approach, or preparation for the event, interwoven, as it was, with the very texture of our social constitution, has rendered all past experience with respect to the economy and regulation of labor nugatory, razed to its foundation the entire system of Southern agriculture, and necessitated its re-construction and re-organization in accordance with the recent changes in our circumstances and relations. Suddenly launched upon a tempestuous sea of danger and perplexity without the polar star of experience to guide us, we must, as best we can, improvise the measures which appear at the moment the best adapted to the purposes of present security, and as calmly as we may, await the slow progress of tentative effort and empirical practice for the development of facts and the matured fruits of experience and observation from the careful comparison and generalization of all which, sound principles may be deduced for our future guidance and direction. Then will a new creation of order, harmony and beauty spring out of the chaotic disorder and confusion which now prevail. Then will the desolation and ruin which mar the face of the country be repaired. And not till then shall wholesome and stable rules and regulations control the entire system of husbandry, with its adjuncts and subsidiaries, and give force and efficiency to the administrative measures necessary for the conduction of all its operations to the most satisfactory and profitable results.

To facilitate and promote these important considerations, a good agricultural journal is an obvious necessity. A medium of communication, for the interchange among farmers of views and opinions entertained by them respectively on subjects appertaining to their common calling, is indispensable, and they especially need a vehible of intelligence for the transmission of the earliest notice of improvement in any department of husbandry, that, by a wide diffusion of such notice, the improvements may be adopted in practice and thus prove a general benefit to the farming fraternity.

Now, to sum up in a word: It is to meet this obvious and pressing necessity that the proprietors propose to publish the above described paper, and in behal of the undertaking they respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

The best talent, both practical and theoretical which the country affords, will be commanded in aid of this enterprise, and no expense will be spared in the effort to make the Journal complete in all respects.

It will be printed on good paper and with clear type, and will comprise thirty two pages of reading matter. An advertising sheet of capacity sufficient to accommodate the advertising patronage of the Journal will be added.

Papers disposed to exchange with The Farmer will send their papers at once.

National Thanksgiving Day.

Proclamation by President Johnson.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God during the year which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the fearful scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmany with a great enlargement of civil liberty: And Whereas our Heavenly Father has also during the present year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season: And Whereas righteousness exalteth a nation, while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, be it known, that I ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof that they do set apart and observe the first Thursday of December next as a day of National Thanks—given to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverences and blessings. And I do further recommend, that on the occasion the whole people make confession of our national sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and six-
[L.S.] ty five, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the nineteenth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART.

New Volume begins January, 1865.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZIME is as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:

London Quarterly,	Revue de Deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Popular Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers's Journal,
Dublin University Magazine,	Edinburgh Review,
Art Journal,	London National Review.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN, AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important historical events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

The Watchman.

THE subscriber proposes to commence in the city of New York, at an early date, the publication of a weekly Journal, to take the highest practicable position on its line of Literature. Each number will contain eight large pages, with six columns to each page, printed on excellent paper in a superior style of photography, and so folded that it may be bound.

It will discuss all the current topics of Religion, Sociology, Science, Art, Politics, Commerce, Finance and Agricnl ture, liberally, carefully, thoroughly, and from a broad platform far above all partizanship. While the entire control of the work will be in the hands of the Editor, he hopes to have a circulation which will enable him to secure in its several departments the best aid which America and Europe can afford.

Faithful to his own Denomination, he trusts that he is so well known in all the Churches for liberality, that any publication of his may unhesitatingly be sent into the families of any Christian community. It may be the mission of this Journal to make all Christians see one another in a lovelier light. The subscriber has an earnest desire, and will make a hearty effort, to produce such a publication that where a family can take only one paper, this will more nearly supply all its wants than any other. A Home Gazette, a Repertory of all the best current Literature, a Summary of all important Intelligence in every department of Human Efforts, a Journal of Progress, an Advocate of Truth in all things, a Friend, a Guide, a Blessing—this is what "The Watchman" is intended to become.

The Editor has never been a partisan, and expects the discussion of politics in his journal to have to do mainly with its higher aspects and questions. The only desirable and permanent Union of States or of churches is a union upon the basis of an affectionate reception of a fundamental, political, or moral and religious truths with a hearty hatred of all certain error, and a generous absence of all fanaticism and strife in regard to what is not essential to political common weal or spiritual salvation. Into this happy unity the "Watchman" will labor to bring all within the reach of its influence.

This journal will afford a common meeting ground for Southern men of all views and thus keep our people in one portion of the South informed of the sentiments and views of those in other parts. It will present to other sections of the U. States a clear view of the animus of our people It will thus secure the South justice and support without promoting sectionalism.

Many reasons unnecessary to state have led many influential persons to the belief that the interests of the South and of the whole country will be greatly promoted by issuing the publication from New York.

The price is put at $2 for the first six months, or $1 for the first three months. No subscription received for less than three, or more than six months. These terms allow one to subscribe for several copies for a short time, for general distribution. The first person who responded to a circular issued just before this prospectus, subscribed for 20 copies to distribute North and South. Write plainly the name, the post office, and number of copies and the length of time, and address.

HEADQUARTERS, District W. N. C.,
Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 11th, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 3. }

Most of the misconduct of the troops in this District, has been occasioned by the use of intoxicating liquor. This liquor in most cases is procured from citizens.

The Col. Commanding the District is sincerely desirous of securing discipline among the troops, but it is well nigh impossible to do so, while the principal cause of the difficulty is furnished by the citizens, themselves.

It is hereby directed that all persons, who shall sell, barter, or give away to any soldier, any intoxicating liquor, of any kind whatsoever shall be arrested, and tried by a Provost Court, and on being found guilty shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both.

All officers, are strictly enjoined to use every exertion to ferret out and bring to punishment those who may violate this order, and all good citizens, are earnestly requested to aid in its execution.
